

Bay Shore Dances

2013

On Friday May 3, 2013 over 300 students took the stage for opening night of Bay Shore Dances 2013. Greeted by the deafening cheers of a packed auditorium, students performed a varied program that included salsa, tap, jazz, contemporary dance, Afro-Caribbean and, of course, hip-hop. Numbers were choreographed and directed by dedicated teachers, coaches and visiting artists, all sponsored by the BSSAEF.

The BSSAEF Choreography Contest winners Moises Navarte and Chris Negrillo reprised their number as did contest finalists Joy Norris and Alyssa, Cameron and Tatianna Padro. High School Physical Education teacher and Bay Shore alumni Anastasia DeBonis and her fellow teachers brought down the house with their contribution to the evening's program.

This year's Bay Shore Dances was dedicated to the memory of BSSAEF co-founder Murray Barbash. A special appeal was sent out for donations to be made in his name, as a tribute to his legacy. Through this effort, over $38,000 was raised. These funds will help the BSSAEF continue to bring wonderful cultural arts programs to all Bay Shore students.

BSSAEF Chairman Susan Barbash expressed heartfelt thanks to all the students, faculty and staff that make this event such a huge success each year, offering special thanks to Ms. Cortney Echevarria who served as the performance's stage manager. Dance-loving families should be on the lookout for an invitation to perform at next year's annual BSSAEF Dance Benefit on Saturday, January 18th, 2014. Please check the Bay Shore Schools website (www.bayshoreschools.org) for details.
